Re: Papakura High School The Rising Foundation

The Rising Foundation plays a very important role in the wrap around care which the students at Papakura High School receive.

We are extremely grateful for the support role which Grace Kingi plays as the Youth Worker for The Rising Foundation. Grace is a warm, personable individual who has a very strong connection with the students who are in The Rising Foundation programme. She offers students a listening ear and takes a very strong interest in their progress through school.

The Rising Foundation offers students opportunities to gain life skills, outdoor experiences and character building activities which they would never have, were it not for the work of Grace and her colleagues. These experiences are life changing for young people in south Auckland.

I warmly endorse the work of The Rising Foundation and do respectfully ask for your favourable consideration on their behalf.

Yours faithfully
